Dear Parents & Guardians,

The recent death of Washington County High School student Tyson Tillman has made a significant impact on our entire school community. The Washington County School District would like to express our sincere condolences to his family and friends. This news has brought a deep sadness to our school family. We expect a variety of reactions to this loss from our students, parents, and members of our staff.

Washington County School District has a Crisis Intervention Team made up of a professionals trained to help with the needs of students, parents, and school personnel at difficult times such as this. Counselors will be available for any student who may need or want help or any type of assistance surrounding this loss. If you believe your child could benefit from speaking with someone from our Crisis Intervention Team, please call the school.

We are saddened by the loss to our school community and will make every effort to help you and your child as you need.

Sincerely,

Washington County School District
